

What is the Cycle of Prayer?

In the Cycle of Prayer, the liturgical year has been divided into six periods, as shown in the chart overleaf. Please pray for the intentions stated in the Cycle, not only on a particular day, and not only at Mass, but throughout the current period, especially in your own private prayers. Praying for those intentions will, it is hoped, become an important part of our daily prayer as Christian communities.

The Sunday

'Prayer of the Faithful'

When a day of special prayer occurs on a Sunday, this will be announced at Mass and a suitable petition will be included in the Prayer of the Faithful. But Sunday Mass, which is the weekly celebration of the Lord's Day, should not be unduly overshadowed by the days of Special Prayer.

Other Forms of Prayer and Action

There are other ways in which we can, often more suitably, pray together for these intentions.

Weekday Masses can be offered for them — there are many Masses for Various Needs which can be chosen from the Missal. Other prayer services for these intentions can be held in the parish. For example,

- a Vigil Service would be a fitting way to pray for peace.
- Evening Prayer of the Church, a Liturgy of the Word,
- a Holy Hour,
- a procession with litanies,
- or Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament are also very suitable ways of coming together to pray for these special intentions.

In addition to personal and community prayer, it is hoped that there will be active and practical support for some of these causes; for example, world peace, Christian unity, evangelisation, the sick, and the welfare of prisoners and their families.

Introduction

Because the joy and hope, the struggle and anguish of the people of this age and especially of the poor and those suffering in any way are the joy and hope, the struggle and anguish of Christ's disciples, the Church prays not just for its own needs but for the salvation of the world.
