TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Bookings are processed in the order they are received.
- A booking is only accepted on receipt of the appropriate deposit.
- Every effort is made to provide the type of room requested but, owing to limited accommodation, families with older children may be placed in adjacent rooms.
- Low Income rate is heavily subsidised and is intended for those who would otherwise be unable to attend.
- A discount of 5% may be claimed by families including up to 2 adults and children aged 3-18. (No charge for under 3).
- Conference participants are requested to pay the balance due on their booking by Wednesday 23 June 2021.
- Cancellations after 23 June 2021 will be liable for the basic accommodation costs unless the place can be filled.
- Non-attenders who have failed to pay in full will also be liable for the basic accommodation costs.

- Adult bookings received after 21 May 2021 will be subject to a surcharge of £7.50 (does not apply to Saturday only).

I/we have read and agree to these terms and conditions ☐

If continued COVID 19 restrictions prevent the conference going ahead in person NJPN will present the programme, or similar, as a bookable only online conference. In this case part of the costs can be reimbursed.

2021: moment of truth

43rd ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the NATIONAL JUSTICE & PEACE NETWORK

23rd—25th July 2021

The Hayes Conference Centre, Swanwick, Derbyshire

'Act justly, love tenderly,
walk humbly with your God'
Micah 6:8

2021: moment of truth

As climate change, the biodiversity crisis and Covid-19 make clear, ecological conversion is becoming a matter of life and death. Decisions to be made this year at the COP26 climate summit and in the recovery from the pandemic are critical for salvaging a viable future. This is a year of opportunity the like of which we will never see again.

At Conference 2021 we will take inspiration from Laudato Si, Fratelli Tutti and secular thinking on integral ecology. We will seize this moment of grace for the changes and choices now confronting us.

Join us to:

- be inspired for transformative ecological conversion for yourself and for our communities, nation and World
- update our shared Christian witness in light of the climate and ecological emergency and Covid-19
- reimagine the justice and peace movement and our Church to meet the challenges ahead.

Conference chair: Christine Allen, Director of CAFOD

Liturgy: Marty Haugen, Liturgical composer, pastoral musician and workshop presenter

Workshops subjects include: COP26 and divestment, Conflict and the Environment, Name that weed (outdoor); Biodiversity loss; Extractive Industries; Eco-anxiety

Afternoon Activities include: Waste recycling practical session, Liturgy planning, Presence at COP26 (real or virtual)

Keynote speakers and themes:

Lorna Gold - 'Climate Generation: Awakening to our Children's Future'

A Scottish-Irish climate campaigner and author. Director of Movement Building at FaithInvest. Formerly Laudato Si' Project Coordinator with Trocaire; Acting Chair of the Global Catholic Climate Movement Board

Fr Eamonn Mulcahy - 'From the heart of the Church: Francis' gospel vision for integral humanity'

Director, Spiritan Mission and Retreat Animation: Spirituality and Catholic Social Teaching underpins our actions

Mark Rotherham - 'Framing the global economic-ecological crisis: integrating ecological and economic change'

An integral thinker with wide experience in the design and delivery of ecological education. His works include films, exhibitions, courses and retreats that explore new directions for Christian spirituality.

JUST FAIR

More than 20 stalls in a "Just Fair" as different agencies display goods and resources, as well as information and ideas about practical action throughout the weekend.

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Children and young people are a vital part of the NJPN conference. There will be a crèche for children under 5 and a programme of activities for 5 to 11 year olds. 12 to 16/18 year olds will explore the conference theme in an active and thought provoking weekend.

NJPN is committed to the protection of children, young people and vulnerable people.

People of all ages and backgrounds are welcome & encouraged to attend conference.

MEALS AT CONFERENCE

We have agreed with The Hayes that meals will be provided as far as possible within our budget according to LOAF principles (Locally sourced, Organically produced, Animal friendly, Fairly traded).

A meat option will therefore only be given at the Saturday evening meal.

All other meals will be vegetarian (including dairy and eggs).

As usual, The Hayes will do their best to accommodate any other dietary needs; please state these on your booking form.

A PACKED LUNCH can be booked for those who have to leave before lunch on Sunday.

Further information and booking forms for these items and your workshop choices will be sent with the pre-conference information pack.
